*I am wondering if Jesse is not Amzi, note his youngest daughter's name is Amy (as best as I could read it from the microfilm). I have asked who Jesse is, but to no avail. If I find out, I'll let you know. You will note, also, that Wm. Bryant's son is written Josia in the census, yet the family called him Jody - on the probate papers, he is listed as Joseph. So evidently, if you don't like your name, change it!

P.S. No, Jesse can't be Amzi or Amji (as our records show). Amji is SUPPOSED to have died in 1851 - I just checked. If you know who he is, I would appreciate knowing - otherwise, if I find out, I'll let you know.

NOTE: It is unknown with whom JAC was having this conversation with. It has been reproduced here as it appears in her notebook.

*Henry R. is also the name of one of Willis and Eleanor (Nellie Burr) Austin's children. Another reason whi I feel possibly this "Jessee" might also be "Amji" or "Amzi", thus naming his first son after his brother. This Jessee fits age-wise and state (Tenn) also.

Madison County, of which Huntsville is the county seat, was established Sept 30, 1836. Its original boundaries have been changed under authority of various legislative acts. In 1827 and 1828 a number of settlers came in, but it is stated that the Jackson were here as early as 1818. The United States lands were opened for entry in 1834, when John Austin made the first purchase.

Dear MRS. CURTIS,

It was so nice meeting you and being in your home. I finally had time to get the AUSTIN material xeroxed and am returning it to you by separate envelope. I found the last letter from MRS. PORTER (in Azusa, Calif.) and will list some of the things she told me. I am sorry I didn't look at it again so I could have run off a copy for you.

She says in her letter that the AUSTINS came from Tennessee to Arkansas and that her Grandmother MARY ANN AUSTIN and grandfather WILLIAM A LANGSTON were married at Mt. Comfort camp ground, 3 miles west of Fayetteville, Washington County, Arkansas on 24 April 1851. (I have looked here but have not found the marriage of my grandparents.) A sister of WILLIAM A LANGSTON, PRUDENCE, married an AUSTIN, brother of MARY ANN. (She must have married BENJAMIN, the one missing from the 1860 census of Arkansas. Do you think so?)

She also says that PRUDENCE died in Ellis County, Texas (which is across the line from Stephens County, where the LOVES lived. She also says that the elder LANGSTONS came to Texas with her grand-parents; and that they all settled in Palo Pinto County (where two of my uncles were born). The LANGSTONS later lived in Hood County (1892-93). MRS. PORTER was born in Wise County in 1905, the youngest in the family. "All the others" were born in Palo Pinto County and Hood County, Texas, except the two older sisters, who were born near Harrison, Arkansas. They are the only ones now living, except MRS. PORTER. They live in Texas. Her father, HENRY LANGSTON died in 1911 & her mother, RACHEL (UNDERDOWN), died in 1956. They were married in Arkansas. I will keep looking, and will report anything to you that I think is of value. Thank you again for all your help.

Sincerely,

/s/ ANN BINKLEY
